

Neighbors in Lake Creek built this float for Wasatch County's parade, a feature of the fair. Steven and Diane Mair, Jan, Mike and Paul Christensen, ride.

It's Last 'Fair' Day In Wasatch County

By JUNE J. WHEELER
Deseret News Correspondent

HEBER CITY — "Let's Go To The Fair" seemed to permeate the air in Wasatch County as citizens, young and old, streamed to exhibits and the special attractions, Saturday, last day of the fair.

Welcoming fair-goers, Mayor Raymond Jiacoletti said, "Wasatch County Fair has truly become a traditional event."

Once each year residents and former residents join other Utahns from every part of the state for reunions and a homecoming.

"Count Your Blessings" is the theme for the parade slated for a repeat march along Main Street Saturday at 6 p.m. Jim Ritchie, parade chairman, said 100 units were participating. Cash prizes were awarded to floats in three categories, commercial or local built, novelty and comic.

Trophies were to be awarded outstanding marching groups and riding clubs with $1 cash prizes going to the five best decorated bicycles.

Young seamstresses proudly modeled clothing during the 4-H Fashion Show. Kick-off for the fair was the talent show Thursday evening in the high school auditorium.